Private Bank since 1789

PRESS RELEASE

Private banker joins Sal. Oppenheim Executive Board

Cologne, 3 May 2010

With effect from 1 May 2010, the Supervisory Board of Sal. Oppenheim jr. & Cie. has appointed Gregor Broschinski (46) to the Executive Board of the traditional private bank, thereby extending the board's divisional responsibility to include private wealth management. Dr. Broschinski, a banker and widely acclaimed expert in the field of exclusive wealth management, has 22 years of experience heading up the private client business of a number of German banks.

From 1988, the business administration graduate held various senior positions at Bayerische Vereinsbank and later at Dresdner Allianz, particularly in the areas of asset advisory services and private client support. In 2002, Dr. Broschinski first assumed responsibility for the wealth management division of Bremer Landesbank and then later for the entire private client business as well as group-wide duties at NordLB Group. In 2008, Dr. Broschinski became a member of the Executive Committee Private Wealth Management Deutschland at Deutsche Bank, where he was most recently responsible for client management and in particular key account business with high net-worth private clients, family offices, as well as legal persons and foundations.

Dr. Gregor Broschinski was born in Krefeld. He is married and actively involved in many different cultural and scientific associations.
